

Country of Study—Malaysia

A list of the books about Malaysia held at Gunnedah Shire Council Library, and websites compiled by their staff

If you wish to borrow these books, just come to the library and check them out. Not a member? Fill out an application form, and present some proof of identity (e.g. Driver's licence) and you can borrow at once.

Book Lust to Go

Nancy Pearl
TRAVEL/ 910 PEA

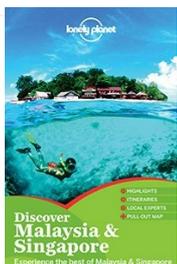

Pages 140-141 gives basic information about Malaysia, as well as the titles of a few fiction books written or set in Malaysia, including the popular Inspector Singh mysteries.

The Rough Guide to Malaysia, Singapore and Brunei

David Leffman... [et.al]
TRAVEL/ 915.95 LEF

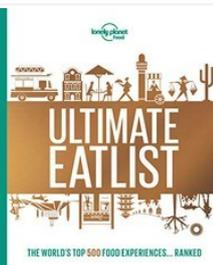

Contains information on the three countries on the Malay peninsular, with the feature being Malaysia. There is information on the country's history, geography, culture, people and a list of 23 things not to miss. There is travel information, photographs, maps and enough places to visit to fill a month.

Discover Malaysia and Singapore

Simon Richmond... [et.al]
TRAVEL/ 915.95 RIC

A Lonely Planet publication, this guide takes you through all the wonders that the Malay peninsular has to offer. With walking tours, city maps, don't miss features and detours to hidden gems, it will ensure your visit is unique and send you home with stories to tell and photographs to share.

Ultimate Eatlist: the world's top 500 food experiences

Various contributors
TRAVEL/ 647.95 ULT

Find out the which dishes the world's best food writers, chefs and travel writers love to eat. Discover the planet's most thrilling and famous culinary experiences, the culture behind them and what makes them so special.

Gunnedah Shire Library eResources

An e-resource available for library members, accessed using your library card number. A range of information is available, for both children and adults. Separate links will take you to resources on travel, learning the language, maps, culture and history, food and business. Have fun exploring and discovering new facts.

High Commission of Malaysia

Provides information for Malaysia citizens residing or visiting Australia, and foreign who wish to visit Malaysia, with updated information on visa, passports, documents (such as birth, marriage and death certificates) and fees payable.

Smart Traveller

The website of the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade , providing advice on how to stay safe while travelling through Malaysia, visa and passport requirements for entry, local laws, health risks and facilities, and where to get help. Provides regional travel warnings also.

C.I.A.—The World Fact book

As well as photos of Malaysia with captions and available for downloading, there are expandable icons with headings such as Geography, People and Society, Government, and Transportation, Military and Security and Transnational Issues.

Britannica—Malaysia

The Encyclopedia Britannica entry for Malaysia has information about the history, culture, geography, economy and links to additional information on particular events or geography.

Rough Guides—Malaysia Travel Guide

Contains guides for exploring Malaysia, with essential information about accommodation, traveling within Malaysia, food and drink, health, sports, national parks and festivals.

<https://www.malaysia.travel/>

The official website for the Malaysian Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture. Contains feature articles about travelling through Malaysia, featured destinations, practical information, events and package deals.

Lonely Planet Guides—Malaysia

The Lonely Planet Guides website for Malaysia contains a lot of information about where to go when travelling and the best ways to experience all that this beautiful and unspoilt country has to offer. Like all lonely planet guides it provides advice about the practical aspects of travel such as passports, visa and how to stay healthy and safe while enjoying your visit to Malaysia.

LOTE Online for Kids

The library subscribes to LOTE Online for Kids which contains hundreds of stories in multiple languages, including Malayalam.

