A fundamental principle of good public administration is that public officials comply with both the letter and spirit of the law. The consequences of breaching legislation can vary greatly between minimal impact on Council to severe consequences of both a civil and criminal nature. Obviously there could also be a significant impact on Council's reputation.

In its role as a Local Government Authority, Gunnedah Shire Council is committed to conducting its functions and activities lawfully and to achieving compliance in all areas of its operations in a manner consistent with best practice principles and that meets the expectations of its staff and the community.
