What happens now

The registration agent should give you the pink copy of this form. They must enter the information on the NSW Companion Animals Register within 7 days or send the yellow copy of this form to any local council within 3 days. Once the information has been entered on the Register you should receive a Certificate recording your details as the new owner.

Only authorised people, such as council staff and police, can access the information on the NSW Companion Animals Register and only to enforce the Companion Animals Act 1998.

If you are concerned that disclosure of your information could jeopardise the safety of you or your family, you may request that these details be suppressed. If this is the case, we recommend that you do not list your animal on any private databases. Please contact any NSW local council for more information.

This information is collected on behalf of the Division of Local Government, Department of Premier and Cabinet (Locked Bag 3030 Nowra NSW 3015), and is held on the NSW Companion Animals Register.

What to do if there are errors on the Certificate

You can correct or update the information on your animal's Certificate by contacting any local council. You may need to provide written proof before council can amend your record.

Council will provide you with a new Certificate once the changes have been processed.

What to do if circumstances change

If circumstances change, you need to notify any local council to update your animal's record within a certain period of time. You may need to take a copy of your Certificate or a copy of this form to the council.

Some examples of changed circumstances are:

- change of ownership, either sold or given away the 'old' owner must notify their council within 14 days
- change of address within 14 days
- change of any other of the animal's details eg. is desexed
   within 14 days
- a court declaration that a dog is dangerous is made or revoked
   within 7 days
- the animal dies within 28 days
- the animal is missing for more than 72 hours within 96 hours after the animal went missing
- the animal has been found after having been reported missing (notification must be given within 72 hours after the animal is found).

If you don't notify any of these changes or you give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $880.

What to do if you sell or give away this animal

Before selling or giving away your animal, you should get a copy of the 'Change of Owner Details C3A' form from any local council. The form is also available on our website at www.dlg.nsw.gov. au. Both you and the new owner will have to complete and sign the form.

As the 'old' owner you have the responsibility of sending the completed form to any local council within 14 days. You will need to attach a copy of this form or your Certificate to the 'Change of Owner Details' form.
